Special Values in Men's SHIRTS.

50c. Garments For 31c.

31c. to-day for a fifty-cent Unlaundered Stiff-Bosom White Shirt. Good Muslin, open back and front, and well made in every way. Shirt man came along some time ago that needed money in a hurry. He got it and we got the Shirts underprice.

Silks To-day in Short Lengths, 19c Yard.

Good qualities—for we'd not show anything else—some of them, in fact, having sold as high as 75c. and $1.00 a yard—but they're all short lengths.

It's just as well to come in early—they'll not last long.

China Matting, $8.00 a Roll of 40 Yards

Would cost you ten dollars buying it by the yard as it retails for 25c. in less than full pieces.

The straw is fine and woven without a seam, in Blue, Green and Red colorings.

Jonquil Lawns, 12 1-2c. Yard.

The Jonquil is a pretty flower, but no prettier than these Colored Lawns that are named for it.

Cardinal, Blue, Green, Heliotrope and Purple floral designs, with a lace-embroidered stripe 12 1-2c.

Social and Personal

The Piano Club gave an Ensemble Recital last Tuesday evening, which was the final celebration of the season.

The music on this occasion was of a high order and emphasized a well-recognized fact that a number of the most artistic and devoted musicians of Richmond are among the members of those who compose the Piano Club. Members of this organization realize that the study of the great masters and modern composers of merit has made the past year very instructive and profitable for them. They desire to express their sense of appreciation to the vocalists, violinists and pianists who have so kindly given variety and added to the pleasure of the recitals.

Last Tuesday, after the concert, refreshments were served and conversation made the close of the evening delightful. The musical programme included:

1. Polonaise from Serenade in D, Beethoven, First Piano, Miss Mary Willis Smoot, Mrs. T. William Pemberton; Second Piano, Miss Anna Cecil, Miss Fannie Lewis.
2. The Miller's Wedding, vocal quartette, Adams, Miss Mary Willis Smoot, Miss Patti Isaacs, Mr. Haddon Watkins, Mr. Cosby.
3. Cuban Dance, piano duet, Gottschalk, Miss Myrtle Redford, Miss Nellie Williams.
4. Allegro Giocoso, piano duo, Mendelssohn, First Piano, Miss Zelle Minor; Second Piano, Miss Lily Hill.
5. Readings, Mrs. Jennie Yennams, recited.
6. Concerto in G minor, op. 25, Mendelssohn, Miss Mary Willis Smoot, Second Piano accompaniment, Miss Myrtle Redford.
7. Forget Me Not, vocal quartette, Geise, Miss Katherine Belle Powell, Mrs. Eugene Clowes, Mr. R. C. Tupman, Mr. J. E. Dunbar.
8. Concerto in D minor, Godard, Miss Mabel Sims, Second Piano accompaniment, Miss Eleanor Guthrie.
9. Torador's Song, piano quartette, Bizet, First Piano, Miss Zelle Minor, Miss Tannie Lewis; Second Piano, Miss Mabel Sims, Miss Eleanor Guthrie.

The New York Visitors.

The party of ladies and gentlemen from New York who are in Richmond under the leadership of Mrs. C. A. Marshall, Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. William Hatch spent a part of yesterday in visiting such places of interest as the Confederate Museum, the Valentine Museum and Studio, the A. Watkins, St. John's Church and historic St. Paul's.

The Richmond pilgrimage committee is made up of Mrs. J. Caskie Cabell, Mrs. J. Taylor Eyzon, Mrs. E. V. Valentine, Mrs. George V. Bagby, Dr. C. W. Brock and Mr. Edward P. Crump. Mrs. Valentine and Mrs. Bagby were present at the reception given the New York party at 3 o'clock by Governor and Mrs. A. J. Montague last afternoon and introduced the strangers. Last evening at 9 o'clock Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. William Hatch gave a reception in the Jefferson parlors to the pilgrimage committee, the Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution and members of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities. Officers of the Commonwealth Chapter are Mrs. Warner Moore, Miss R. Allen, Miss Eleanor Harrison and Miss Kate E. Puller; Messrs. A. Watkins, J. A. Morton, J. V. White, J. McLean, Conway Gordon, Oscar Lohman and J. E. Dunbar. The following ladies are patronesses: Mrs. Fred Pleasant, Mrs. H. Landon Cabell, Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, Miss Nellie Ragland, Mrs. H. A. Gills, Mrs. Russell Cecil, Mrs. H. H. Hawes, Mrs. Henry Harwood, Mrs. John A. Coke, Mrs. John S. Harwood and Mrs. T. William Pemberton.

Mr. Tupman's Benefit.

A musical will be given this evening at the Y. M. C. Hall for the benefit of Mr. R. C. Tupman. The programme will be participated in by Miss Mary Willis Smoot, Miss Myrtle Redford, Mr. Tupman, Miss Katherine Belle Powell, Mrs. Maude Porter Gunn, Miss Mabel Sims, Miss Kate E. Puller, Messrs. A. Watkins, J. A. Morton, J. V. White, J. McLean, Conway Gordon, Oscar Lohman and J. E. Dunbar. The following ladies are patronesses: Mrs. Fred Pleasant, Mrs. H. Landon Cabell, Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, Miss Nellie Ragland, Mrs. H. A. Gills, Mrs. Russell Cecil, Mrs. H. H. Hawes, Mrs. Henry Harwood, Mrs. John A. Coke, Mrs. John S. Harwood and Mrs. T. William Pemberton.

Milton Work Whist Club.

The Milton Work Whist Club met Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the Woman's Club. The highest score north and south was made by Mrs. W. H. Palmer and Miss Mattie Harris Wins-

Mr. Gooch will return to Staunton today. About June 1st, he and Mrs. Gooch expect to make a trip of some weeks to California. They will return to Staunton on the route and tour the State of California before returning.

Miss Nannie Byrd Turner, of King George Courthouse, has a short poem in the June Smart Set, entitled "Loss." The first verse of it runs thus: "My life and I have grown so strangely tired. We falter, now, before a little thing; While other days, the greater task would bring. With it the greater strength that it required. The dreams that thrilled of old, the hopes that died, Are turned to ashes, fading, darkening; And the old songs that we were wont to sing. Gone with the old desires that we desired."

THE U. S. COURT

Argument Heard in Interesting Cases. The Docket for To-Day.

In the United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday, with Judges Simonson, Waddill, and Keeler presiding, argument was heard in the following cases: No. 422, Christian Davies, trustee of C. W. Last Rehearsal.

The last rehearsal of the choir for the Wesley celebration will be held in the main auditorium of the Broad-Street M. E. Church, to-night at 8 o'clock. Prof. J. L. Mitchell, director, will be on hand and a good rehearsal is anticipated. In the Wesley choir and invitation is extended to others who sing, even though not members of any regular choir.

Horse Was Shocked.

While driving on Broad Street, near Third, Wednesday, Mr. Eddie Boze's horse stepped on the traction Company's track, and was shocked and thrown to the ground, where he lay for several minutes. He was not hurt much.

Mrs. Boze and Miss Boze were thrown out of the carriage, but fortunately the horse being under splendid control, he was soon quieted, and they escaped unhurt.

His Anniversary.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of Bishop George W. Perkins, of West Virginia, will be celebrated on Ascension Day, May 21st, in St. Matthew's Church, of Wheeling.

Bishop Perkins is well known and greatly beloved here. He is a son of the Rev. Joshua Perkins, for many years rector of St. James in this city. His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Perkins, is a resident of this city.

READ BILLS INDUSTRIOUSLY

Governor Working to Keep Up With Legislature—Notes from Capitol.

The Governor put in yesterday and last night reading bills, so as to be ready for the General Assembly to convene today. He spent the morning hours yesterday engaged with his correspondence. Secretary Ritchie has returned from West Virginia and New York, where he went on business.

Mr. J. G. Hankins, chief clerk in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, left yesterday for his home in Halifax county. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. E. B. Moore, who is rapidly recovering from a serious operation performed by Dr. George Ben Johnston about five weeks ago.

The School Journal, published by the Department of Public Instruction, will be out in a few days. It will contain in the official department full announcements regarding the Summer Normal to be conducted at Emory and Henry College, which has not so far received the help from the Peabody fund usually given during the lifetime of Dr. Curry, but will be conducted as formerly and tuition will be charged teachers attending.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Dickinson have returned from attendance on the Southern Baptist Convention in Savannah, Ga.

Miss Louise Wadsworth, State sponsor for the Sons of Veterans, who has been visiting in Mobile, will leave that city the last of this week.

Mrs. Andrew Gray expects her mother, Mrs. John Springer Gray, and her cousin, Miss Hewlett, of Wilmington, N. C., to visit her soon.

Mrs. Herbert Gray has taken apartments at No. 207 East Franklin Street for next winter. Mrs. Gray is spending the spring and summer in Cumberland county.

Mr. Malvern C. Patterson and Mr. William Gray are in New York for a few days.

At the Theatres.

A good deal of mystery is being observed as to the personnel of the Giffen Company, which is to open a stock season at the Academy next Monday in Jerome's delightful comedy, "Miss Hobbs." It was learnt yesterday that Mr. Howard, the leading man, who was last seen here in a similar capacity with Miss Ethel Barrymore, has been re-engaged by Charles Frohman for next season. Mr. Frohman has evidently secured a play suited to Mr. Howard's gifts as an actor, for he called his general manager in New York to close with Mr. Howard at once.

Another member of the cast is Miss Wood, whose name is inseparably connected with the success of "Way Down East," in which she originated the role of Martha. Miss Wood is a newspaper woman, for years connected with Chicago papers, and later the New York correspondent of the Chicago Tribune.

The company now appearing at the Bijou in "A Little Outcast" is the best organization seen here this season in dramatics. Misses and Messrs. who comprise the cast, is a delightful little actress, who completely captivates her audience. As Bob, the newsboy, her work is ideal. The play is sumptuously staged and is presented by an uniformly clever company.

The Robinson Comic Opera Company will open an engagement at the Bijou next week in "Said Pasha." This will be the only time the company will appear on Monday and Tuesday. "Fra Diavolo" is to follow on Wednesday and Thursday, and the engagement will close with "Girofle Girofle" on Friday and Saturday. The company will all be superbly staged. There are thirty-five people in the company.

Manager Jake Wells will return to the city to-day from New York to witness the dress rehearsal of his new dramatic stock company in "A Mexican Love Story."

COLORED BAPTISTS

Association Stands by the Deposed Preacher—Officers Elected.

After an executive session, held yesterday morning, the Baptist General Association of Virginia (colored) decided to stand by the Rev. J. L. Watts, of Petersburg, who was deposed last week by the action of the convention's hearty support was adopted. The body expressed its confidence in Rev. Watts by electing him moderator for the ensuing year.

Reports received by the association show the body to be in an excellent condition. Somewhat of a stir was caused yesterday morning when Rev. A. G. Graham, of Berkeley, in an address began to "uncover" some of the academics of the State and show where they were putting up "straw contrivances."

STATE BOARD OF TRADE

Mr. L. Z. Morris Says Body Should Push "Virginia Building" Scheme.

One of the most progressive and thoughtful men in the city is Mr. L. Z. Morris, formerly president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce. He has asked yesterday what he thought of the idea of Virginia's having a building at the St. Louis Exposition and the reproduction of Monticello, all to be paid for by public subscription. He said first that he had not yet given the matter much thought, but that he had pursued it, it was just the thing to do.

The new State business organization ought to take the matter up and push it. This is one which the entire State is interested in, he declared, and it would be most appropriate if the State board endorse it. It would not do for the Richmond Chamber to take the lead in pushing it, he thought, since some might say it was a Richmond fad rather than a State project.

This is the first suggestion, so far as known, of specific work for the organization recently effected in Richmond, and in which nearly every large city in the State has representatives.

MASONIC HOME.

Meeting of the Board—Closing Exercises of June 11th.

The Board of Governors for the Masonic Home of Virginia met in regular monthly meeting at the office of Judge B. R. Wellford, in the City Hall, at 12 o'clock yesterday, with the following members in attendance: Mr. Garrett G. Gooch, vice-president, in the chair; Mr. C. A. Nesbitt, secretary; Major A. R. Courtney, Messrs. Julius Straus, J. C. Moore, John W. Richardson and Mrs. Barbour, superintendent of the Home.

Reports were received from the several committees, showing the affairs of the Home to be in good condition. There are now fifty-six children in the Home, twenty-three of whom are girls, and the health of all is good.

The closing exercises of the Home school will take place on June 11th, and the Board will meet there on that day. The committee on admissions reported favorably on the admission of John 12 and Byron F. Hurt of Prater Lodge, No. 254, located in Russell county.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION

Delegates to Be Chosen to the International Session.

Delegates to the meeting of the International Typographical Union in Washington will be nominated at the meeting of No. 90 to-morrow night. The election will take place next Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

CHEESE-ROLLING CONTEST

Baldacci and Castelvocchi to Finish Next Wednesday.

Cheese rolling has become the popular sport at the Italian Country Club. A match was begun at the club on the last night between Frank Baldacci and P. Castelvocchi, which was won in one event by the latter and in the second event unfinished.

The contest will conclude next Wednesday afternoon, at which time the championship of the club will be decided.

NEW ORLEANS TRIP

List Will Remain Open Until Moon Tomorrow.

The list of those who are going to New Orleans with the veterans and the Howards will remain open until Saturday afternoon. The trip is so reasonable that any one who cares to go on the trip may join the party leaving here to-morrow night, and any one so wishing may place his name on the list with Captain Myers, at Lumsden's.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF SAINT ANDREW

The Richmond Local Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will meet to-night in the lecture-room of Grace Church. Mr. E. M. Camp, of New York, will deliver an address. All men, regardless of denomination, will be welcome.

The Police Court.

Mary Lewis, colored, had Bessie Brown, also colored, arrested for being drunk and disorderly, and then tried to have the warrant withdrawn in the Police Court yesterday.

"Somebody jugged her beer," said Mary, in explanation, "and I hope you'll let her go easy."

"All right; gimme $2.50," Bessie didn't have that much.

Leroy Egbert, an indolent negro boy, who recently served a term of three years at the negro reformatory, was sent back to that institution for five years, because he robbed his benefactor of a horse, and bought a bicycle with the spoils.

J. S. Hampton, charged with getting board and lodgings at the Lexington Hotel, denies the charge, and, at the request of his counsel, Mr. Harry Glenn, the case went over to Saturday.

Mr. Matthews' Gift.

A number of members of the Legislature, who were the guests of Hon. S. Wilkins Matthews, of Accomac, on an excursion to Westover aboard the tug Thomas Cunningham, left for Saturday, Saturday in the clerk's office of the House yesterday afternoon and presented him with a handsome carving set.

Mr. Baker, of Westover, made the presentation speech, and Mr. Matthews responded in a most graceful manner.

THE ADVOCATE CONDEMNS A HYMN

Says It is Abhorrent—Much Used by the Revivalists.

The leading editorial in the Christian Advocate of this week discusses the subject, "Is There a Dead Line?" and incidentally gives strong condemnation to a familiar hymn much employed by revivalists. The hymn begins thus:

"There is a time we know not when, A place we know not where; To glory or despair."

In discussing this hymn the Advocate says in part: We have never heard of this hymn, read, sung, or quoted, without a feeling of mingled horror and repulsion. The idea that a man may be 'doomed' before he dies, that there is a line this side of the terminus of life, which seals his destiny, for eternal future is so abhorrent to every human and Christian sentiment and so totally inconsistent with the teaching of scripture that it is exceedingly offensive. We know that it is often made use of by revivalists to awaken and alarm the impatient, but we doubt whether the effect is ever other than repellent and hardening.

There is One Point of superiority in the announcements of the store—they emanate from the values themselves, and not from the brain of advertising genius. That is why people read our advertisements and respond to them, knowing the offerings are always substantiated by the qualities and worth claimed for them, and no glittering promises are made which could not meet with fulfillment. Experience has proven to the complete satisfaction of this community that the best results in wearing apparel concerning quality, dependability and cheapness, the Burk Stores stand alone.
